

ANDREW CAN SKI

Even with C.P.

Follow Andrew's amazing journey from his illness as a baby to finding a sport in which he could participate with Cerebral Palsy.

Discover his will to excel at skiing and his dream of competing in the next Paralympics.

Written and illustrated by his Mom & number one fan, Sheryl Brookman Haraghey.

Dear Parent

Author & Illustrator Sheryl Brookman Haraghey is coming to your child's school to talk about this book and what it means to grow up with Cerebral Palsy. Prior to the event, Andrew's story will be read and discussed in class.

If you would like your child to have an autographed copy of this inspiring story, please complete the form below and return it with payment. Books will be delivered the day of the event.
